

The Allnutt Award

(Outstanding Non-Faculty Award)

The Allnutt Award (Outstanding Non-faculty Award) is presented to one outstanding non-faculty employee(s) annually by the Student Senate. The non-faculty employee(s) are nominated by students and selected for their impact on students' lives through dedication to the students, the college mission, and exemplary commitment and service to North Central Missouri College."

The award was named in honor of LeeAnn Allnutt, a graduate of NCMC who as an employee gave 25 years of service to NCMC.

NOMINATION FORM

Write an essay telling why you feel your nominee deserves this award and answer the following questions in the essay.

Name of nominee:

How has the nominee inspired you?

How has the nominee made your experience at NCMC better?

How has the nominee made an impact on your life?

How does the nominee demonstrate dedication, enthusiasm, and commitment to the college mission?

Please turn your nomination in to the Alexander Student Center front desk.