

NCMC Nursing and Health Science

Articulated Credit
AH160 Basic Medical Terminology

Date _____
High School _____
Instructor _____

High School – Junior & Senior CAN Course

Course 1 _____
Semester 2 Semesters
(If needed) Course 2 _____
Semester 2 Semesters

High School Evaluation 1 – Highly Comprehensive 2 – Moderately Comprehensive 3 – Introductory Coverage
--

Competency	High School Hours Spent	Degree of High School Comprehension
Define and Spell Word Parts
Define and spell word parts related to directional terms
Define, pronounce, and spell terms used to describe anatomic planes
Define, pronounce, and spell terms used to describe body positions
Define, pronounce, and spell terms used to describe abdominopelvic regions
Define and spell word parts related to the integumentary system
Define and spell word parts related to body structure, color, and oncology
Define and spell word parts related respiratory system
Define and spell word parts related to the urinary systems
Define and spell word parts related to the male and female reproductive systems

Define and spell word parts related to obstetric and neonatology
Define and spell word parts related to the cardiovascular and lymphatic system and blood
Define and spell word parts related to the digestive system
Define and spell word parts related to the eye and ear
Define and spell word parts related to the musculoskeletal system
Define and spell word parts related to the nervous system
Define and spell word parts related to the endocrine system
Identify and analyze word parts to determine the meaning of specific medical terms
Analyze and define medical terms
Identify and define the four-word parts and the combining form
Identify anatomic structures of the human body and systems
Interpret, read, and comprehend medical language simulated in medical statements and documents
Use word parts, build medical terms for given definitions
Build medical terms for given definitions
Identify and use singular and plural endings		